Grand Traverse County Resource Recovery Manager Named Environmentalist of the Year

Traverse City – Grand Traverse County Resource Recovery Manager David Schaffer was named the Environmentalist of the Year in Public Service/Public Office by the Northern Michigan Environmental Action Council (NMEAC) for outstanding leadership in guiding one of the premiere recycling and composting operations in northern Michigan.

The award is a great honor and acknowledges the work of Grand Traverse County's Resource Recovery program, RecycleSmart, and the Take It Back Directory.

More information on Grand Traverse County RecycleSmart can be found at recyclesmart.info.
