Subject: Where City Meets Sand, the Senior Center is “The Place to Be”!

With Two-Thousand Fourteen, coming to a close, the Senior Center is busy decorating for the Holidays, for members and visitors, alike, to enjoy, as it has done for over 40 years. Each year, membership grows due to the success of so many exceptional programs, dedication of staff, and valued community support. Two important publications are also produced, “Front and Center,” the bimonthly newsletter, detailing all activities, classes, and special events, as well as, the annual trips guide, “On the Road Again” released, in October, each year. Lifetime members (Grand Traverse County residents age 60 and over), can renew these with just a phone call for the next year, in order to maintain subscription status. Membership for those, under 60 in age, living in Elmwood Township and Leelanau County, requires a modest annual remittance, best done during December for the next year. New members are welcome, always, all year long at any Senior Center Network site – Traverse City, Interlochen, Kingsley, Acme, and Fife Lake. Please access, www.gtcoa.org, or call 231-922-4911 (8 – 5:00 p.m.) for more information.
